

But Life Prevented It

Intro: ||: E | Am :||

1. Saw you from time to time
on my way to work and home.
Your view excited me,
these eyes so deep and occult.
Today I invited you to a coffee at the corner.

Than I woke up again.

Refrain: Stopped eating meat...
... but life prevented it.
Promised to burn fat but oil...
... but life prevented it.
Liked to say what I mean...
... but life prevented it.
Was on my way to better life...
... but life prevented it.

2. Long ago we had a tiff.
No word, nothing heard from you since that.
Every day not talking to you anymore,
makes me more angry so I picked up the phone...

Than I woke up again.

Refrain: Picked up the phone to call you...
... but life prevented it.
Really knew what to do...
... but life prevented it.
Swearred to help you next time...
... but life prevented it.
Was on my way to better life...
... but life prevented it.

3. Autumn gray, too cold to sleep outside.
Gave you a smile when you came in.
Warming words and warming food.
I was proud to earn your thank...

Than I woke up again.

Refrain: Wanted to help you out...

... but life prevented it

Tried to getting fit...

... but life prevented it

Nearly finished the project in time...

... but life prevented it

Was on my way to better life...

... but life prevented it.

4. Everything went in the wrong direction.
Than I knew what do...

But I never woke up again.
